

Chabad of the Town is proud to present a kaleidoscope of programs for your child(ren). They will meet new Jewish friends, participate in helping the community and learn important values, all in a friendly and fun environment.

Chabad of the Town is a happening place, filled with programs and events. Chabad works to make every Jewish holiday feel extra special with well planned programs. The entertainment combined with the rich Jewish atmosphere will make each event a memorable one, one that will make you promise, 'I'm coming back next time!'

You can be sure, that even when there is no official holiday, Chabad of the Town still has many programs planned for your child(ren).

In this pamphlet, you will find a brief description about each of our teen and youth events which are planned for this year. Please mark down the dates in your calendars and save these dates for the upcoming programs.

Sign up today and start enjoying your program with our talented leader Malkie Heidingsfeld and team.
